

Recreation Center Rules & Regulations

A VALID RESIDENT PHOTO I.D. OR GUEST PASS IS REQUIRED FOR ENTRY TO A RECREATION CENTER.

ALL CLUB MEMBERS MUST ENTER AND EXIT THE FACILITIES THROUGH THE MAIN ENTRANCE AND SHOW THEIR I.D.

Guest passes are available by resident request only. Guest privileges extend to both Recreation Centers. Residents are encouraged to accompany and remain with their guest(s) while they are visiting the Recreation Centers and will be held responsible for the actions of their guest(s) while they are using the recreation facilities. Unsupervised children are not permitted in the Recreation Centers. WVA Staff will enforce the Rules & Regulations. If you observe a violation of the rules, report it to a staff member immediately. If a resident, club member, or guest is found to have violated any of the rules, they are subject to lose their privileges to use the facilities & common areas.

Entry to any workshop is restricted per shop/club rules. Clubs are responsible for monitoring their premises and the use of the equipment.

Pursuant to Arizona State Law, the Recreation Centers are NO SMOKING facilities, including all walkways and patios, except in the parking lots and 20 feet from the front entry door. Please use the provided ashtrays to extinguish cigarettes prior to entering the Centers.
