NOTE: Effective August 6, 2016, the Arizona State Legislation amended the laws on how associations must treat violations. Notice to Member of Violation A.R.S. 33-1242 (condominiums) and A.R.S. 33-1803 (planned communities) changes the way we, as your association administrators, have to send written notice that the condition of the property owned by a member is in violation of the community documents. Thus, WVA cannot accept anonymous compliance complaints; this form must be filled out and submitted providing the alleged condition of the property owned by a member in violation of the community documents. If requested by the member who receives written notice that the condition of their property is in violation of the community documents (within the time period designated by the law), we must disclose your name to them.
